As per this Presidential Order, the Scheduled Caste can be amongst Hindus, Sikhs and Buddhists only. As such the persons belonging to other religions including Christians and Muslims cannot be recorded as Scheduled Castes. The procedure to enumerate the Scheduled Caste population followed at the Census of India, 2001 was the same as followed at the earlier censuses and in accordance with the Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1950, therefore the question of taking any measure to rectify the same does not arise.
